Thi G Bell

With many Thanks.

1 So this school went many of the Amble-side children, including Mr. Bell, his brothers and sister Mary Arnold, afterwards Mrs.
 Humphrey Ward, Dr. Fell's daughters and Mary Newton, afterwards Mrs. W.D. Hall.

= Mrs John Fleming.
 2 Miss Healey moved the school to W^{ro} Thomas Watson's, the house now Miss Wearings shop in Lake Road, where she and her two sisters, Ada and Alice lodged.
 About 1864 she moved the school to Longridge View where she could take boarders - Miss Mason came to spend her holidays at Longridge View with Miss Healey.

Then Belle View?
 see Middleton.

3 Miss Clough used to visit Ambleside after she left in 1862.
 Sometimes she would stay in lodgings and sometimes with friends - One summer (about 1865) she was at Garsmere with Mrs Arthur H. Clough and her three children - About 1890 she visited Miss Claude at Sisterhood and Ard once I remember her staying with Miss Arnold at Fox Hall

4. It was Mr Robert Crewdson of Rydal Mount who built and owned the Lecture Room, though John Fleming had a free hand in planning and arranging it and also had full powers over it as long as he lived -
